THE NOON REST.

On next Wednesday evening the noon rest for girls will be opened to the public. The leaders of the W. C. T. U. bave the rooms nearly ready and a more attractive place would be hard to find in the city. Both of the rooms on the first floor of the W. C. T. U. building will be occupied. The east room has been neatly fitted out with chairs and tables and the floor covered with linoleum. In this room ladies can est their luncheons. Coffee and tea will be furnished if desired and if the demand warrants, a bill of fare will be served in the course of time. The west room is elegantly carpeted and turnished for a sitting room. The library is here and it is as cozy a place as one would wish to find.

The rooms will be kept open day and even-"We want a place for the girls," said Mrs. Patton to a News man. "I have always thought enough was not done for the girls. We are going to keep this open for them exclusively. Now when they come up town evenings they will have some place to go. This will keep them from going to some place where they should

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by foreing opium, morphice, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves.'

Da. J. F. KINGUELOE,

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children re-I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. K.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria. and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with
